REPUBLICAN TICKET

For Congress:
W. P. HUBBARD, of Wheeling.

For State Senate:
O. A. ASHBURN, of West Union.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

For County Superintendent.
I desire to announce myself for the nomination for the office of county superintendent of free schools of Harrison county, subject to the will of the Republicans of the county.

CYRUS E. WEBB.

County Commissioner
I hereby announce myself as a Republican candidate for County Commissioner subject to the Republican Primary election.

HIRAM L. MUNDAY.

I hereby announce my candidacy for county commissioner of Harrison county subject to the will of the Republican party.

B. BROWN STOUT.

After repeated solicitation from Republicans from various districts of the county, I have consented to be a candidate for county commissioner, subject to the will of the Republicans of Harrison county.

JAMES S. GRIFFIN.

The Maine election was lost to the Democrats and now they are giving Bryan the blame, as evidenced by the statement issued by the Democratic chairman in Maine in which he avers that Bryan's Madison Square Garden speech did it. He has been generally conceded that Bryan's government ownership idea would seriously handicap the Democrats in the present campaign and doubtless had something to do with the Maine result, but was not responsible altogether, as there were other causes, for instance the temperance question, which the Republican ticket advocated. The Maine Republicans were divided on that issue and did not vote solidly on that account. Also Gompers cut some figure in his fight against Congressman Littlefield. Besides, there were various other matters of a local nature that affected the results. That the Democratic chairman does not take these matters into consideration is somewhat of a surprise, unless he wants to make the impression that Maine is almost Democratic, which would be a false statement. He is right, however, when he says Bryan's speech had something to do with it and other States will find the same true as to them, if the feeling against Bryan in the Democratic party has not been misjudged.

In another column is an extensive mention of George T. Faris, Esq., a prominent citizen of this county. The writer of that article

New Fall Dress Goods

A plentiful assortment of the new Scotch Plaids—especially good for school dresses—also checks and plaids in all of the new grays, specially priced at 50 cents a yard.

New Broad Cloth

In all the new fall colors. We offer you a broad cloth 50 inches wide and actually worth $1.50 at $1.00 per yard.

New Plaid Silks

Some beautiful new plaid silks for waists at $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50.

New Plaid Ribbons

Just opened a large assortment of new plaid ribbons at 39c, 50c, 65c, and 75c.

New Tailored Suits

Every express brings us additional styles of new fall suits. That the styles are correct and the prices right is evidenced by the fact that several customers have told us "your suits at $16.50 are as good, if not better than others we have seen at $25." That they are beauties is evident also from the way they are selling. Special values at $16.50, $18.50, $21.50, $25 and $35.

New Tailored Hats For Street Wear Now On Display

has known Mr. Faris all his life and been intimately acquainted with him. The article is a modest estimate of what his neighbors think of him and his family. It is something to be proud of. It affords the Telegram great pleasure to produce the article and to most heartily endorse the sentiment therein set forth. Such citizens as Mr. Faris and his family are the most representative of the county and are examples worthy of emulation.

A prominent Democrat told another prominent Democrat the other day it was not worth while for the Democrats to try to elect any candidates in Harrison county this year. He assigned as his reason that the Republicans were too much in harmony for that. He was exactly right about it. We congratulate him on his frankness and good judgment.

The glass factories resumed their fires last night and several hundred men are at work after a vacation during the summer months. Orders are plentiful and indicate the season is to be the busiest the local factories have ever had. This is pleasing news to the community and trade conditions will soon be much brisker. The truth is, the coming winter and spring are expected to be the best in business Clarksburg has ever experienced.

We are expecting the Democrats to tell us why they denounce the new tax laws, in their platforms. So far, they are silent, and silence is golden.

Our Riflemen At Sea Girt

West Virginia's crack riflemen stand 32nd on the list of the National Guard teams that took part in the big match at Sea Girt. While the result is not entirely satisfactory to those who participated they are pleased over the fact that their work showed an improvement over last year.

Lack of practice on the Sea Girt ranges was responsible in a measure for some of the poor scores. The team reached Sea Girt only a day or so in advance of the match and had but little opportunity to familiarize themselves with the targets.

After the team shoot had been concluded the state team spent two days in preliminary shooting for the individual contest and showed a marked improvement. Owing to the great number of entries it was thought best by the West Virginia boys not to enter.

The team match was won by the U. S. Infantry team with a total score of 3251 and the U. S. Cavalry team second with 3191. The teams shot at 200, 600, 800 and 1000 yard ranges and there were also skirmishes and rapid fire shooting. The total scores of the West Virginia teams for the contest are as follows:

Lt. Col. C. F. Joffe..... 203
Maj. C. C. Pierce..... 145
Capt. Judson Arnold..... 170
Capt. C. F. Campbell..... 149

Lt. F. R. Pierce..... 187
Sgt. Wilbur Leaton..... 156
Corp. S. G. Coombs..... 188
Sgt. Chas. Freeland..... 184
Sgt. Clinton Mineau..... 200
Sgt. M. P. Rohr..... 188
Corp. Ben F. Cole..... 220
Sgt. John West..... 150

Total.....2140

OPERA HOUSE NEWS NOTES

The manager of Buster Brown's "Holiday" company has spent a fortune on the production and the theatrical world have freely voted it to be a "sure cure for the blues." Has your boy or girl received one of the funny Buster Brown books yet? No? Then tell him to get one at the theatre where the attraction will play and he will be delighted.

The costumes in "The Warning Bell" have been carefully studied and selected on the spot, and the wonderful mechanical and electrical effects of store, moonlight, etc. have been carefully reproduced from nature, studied and copied on the spot. Nothing has been omitted.

The central figure in "The County Chairman" is the political bear of the district, "Jim Hackler," who was nominated for office by his law partner "Tillford Wheeler," a manly young lawyer. The opposing candidate for prosecuting attorney is "Judge Rigby," a close fistled land shark and the bitterness of the campaign brings about an estrangement of young Wheeler and the Judge's daughter, who have been secretly betrothed prior to the beginning of the campaign. Finally, though four acts of pictorial movement and surprise, Hackler wins the campaign for Wheeler and the lovers are united. In the interpretation of "The County Chairman" a specially selected company is enlisted, including Theodore Babcock and Thos. J. Grady.

At Grand Tonight

It will teach you to love your father. By the way have you procured those two little pieces of cardboard that will enable you to enjoy the pleasantest evening of your career when "The Girl From Texas" comes to the Grand tonight? If not, you had better hurry up, as the little lady would never forgive you if you deprived her of seeing Miss Estell Bender as "Texas Nell." It will teach all to be better in fact there is a lesson in it for all and an evening of enjoyment for all and you had better procure your seats early.

The mayor had a bunch before him this morning. They were all charged with drunkenness. Three got three days each in jail. One paid $6.00 and the other $11.00, and two put up $4.00 each and forfeited the same.
